Sea

A dolphin,
Carrying me to the ocean,
An undersea world

It froths through the water
Its skin like stars

Its smooth,
Cold,
Skin,
Like glass

And we lift off in the sky,
The sky like an ocean

I feel the wind in my hair,
The clouds around me,

I hear bells,

Getting louder & louder,
Until at last,
We are there.

I get off the dolphin,
it dissolves in thin air.

I go to my Papi,
Then turn around.

The dolphin is there again,
But just in a bound...

Are mountains,
Rivers,
Lakes galore.

There are deserts,
Yaks,
And crops.

We are in China,
Land of the poets.

Reading

The joy of reading,
The joy of carelessness,
Pulled into a world where time does not matter...
Until...

"Dinner's ready!!!"
My mom shouts.

Space

Stars
Planets
Meteors
Asteroids
Space dust

Endless space just doesn't seem so endless

Rainy Day

Cloudy Day

Puffy white marshmallows
Dancing across the sky
Changing shape, size, form becoming dogs, chairs, clouds
And then I wonder-What if I was a cloud...

Eaten by a tiger

HELP!
ROAR!
"Yummy" says the tiger

Path

It twists
Down the path
As I dive in the pool,
30 feet below.

Seperated only by a waterfall,
I jump...
And a life is ended.
